Sample Itinerary Day One | Arrival

Welcome to Spain!

Arrival and Check-in: After touchdown in Barcelona, a private coach whisks you away to your accommodation. The night porter is aware of your arrival and ready to help. Take time to settle in and rest—this is your home for an unforgettable football adventure.

Fuel Up for the Fun: Enjoy breakfast before stepping out to explore the vibrant local area. Stroll along the sun-drenched beach, soak up the Mediterranean vibes, and prepare for the excitement ahead.

Coach and Trainer Briefing: A short walk brings team staff to the Komm Mit office for a welcome briefing, ensuring everything is in place for the tournament kick-off.

Day Two | The Opening Ceremony

Morning: Breakfast at the hotel before heading to the Blanes Stadium by bus – where the tournament truly begins.

Parade and Opening Spectacle: Feel the adrenaline as you and your team march through the stadium catacombs, emerging onto the pitch in front of thousands of cheering spectators. Experience the electric atmosphere as teams are introduced, music fills the air, and the trophies gleam under the Spanish sun.

Watch the Opening Match: Witness top-level football as the tournament officially kicks off.

Afternoon: Lunch back at the hotel, then gear up for your first competitive game in the afternoon. A dedicated team coach ensures smooth transport to and from the match venue.

Evening: Celebrate your first matchday with a relaxed dinner and, for those interested, a visit to the famous Frog Disco-Bar, a legendary spot just minutes from the hotel.

Day Three | The Tournament Heats Up!

Morning: A hearty breakfast fuels you for a full day of action.

Group Stage Matches: Hop on the team coach and head to the tournament venues scattered along the breathtaking Costa Brava coastline (10-30 minutes away).

Double Matchday: Compete in two crucial group-stage fixtures, with a well-earned break in between to analyse tactics, support fellow teams, and soak in the competition.

Evening: After returning to the hotel, unwind by the pool, take a sunset walk along the palm-lined promenade, or fit in a light beach training session to stay sharp for the knockout rounds.

Day Four | Knockout Rounds Begin!

Morning: Breakfast and a chance to visit the local sights.

Afternoon: Rest, recover, and prepare mentally for what's next.

Evening: The knockout matches begin as the U19 teams battle it out in the round of 16, while Women's teams head further afield for an intense local matchup. Only the strongest will progress.

Day Five | Finals Day

Quarter-finals and Semi-finals: The tension rises as the remaining teams fight for their place in the grand final. A dramatic penalty shootout will decide third place for U19s.

The Grand Final: The best of the best face off in Blanes Stadium. Feel the anticipation as national anthems play, teams line up for presentation, and the crowd erupts with every goal.

Closing Ceremony: The tournament ends in spectacular fashion with an unforgettable awards presentation. Join every team on the pitch as trophies are lifted, medals are awarded, and a stunning light show wraps up an incredible week.

Late-night return to the hotel, buzzing from an experience like no other.

Day Six | Departure

Morning: A final breakfast to reflect on an unforgettable week before heading to the airport for your flight home.

Departures: Coaches will ensure timely transfers, so every squad gets home safely—tired but filled with incredible memories, new friendships, and a deep love for Spanish football culture.
